

Rules of Conduct for the Group Study Rooms of Passau University Library

1. The group study rooms can be used for groups of two to eight people.
2. The rooms can only be reserved by students enrolled at the University of Passau.
3. Reservations can be made via the booking tool anyy.
4. Reservations are accepted at the earliest 14 days in advance.
5. A maximum of four reservations (two hours each) can be made per calendar week.
6. Reservations lapse if the group does not arrive within 30 minutes of the agreed time.
7. The rooms cannot be used for scheduled regular events.
8. Commercial use of the rooms is not permitted.
9. Reservations cannot be transferred or made on behalf of someone else.
10. The rooms can only be used during the regular opening hours and must be vacated two hours before the closing time of the reading room.
11. Before you can use the room, you have to register at the circulation desk.
12. Pens for the whiteboards and a projector (Computer Science & Mathematics reading room) can be borrowed from the circulation desk against a deposit.
13. Please keep the room clean.
14. Please keep the noise level low.
15. You are using the group study room and other resources at your own risk. The University Library cannot be held liable for loss or damage to private items.
16. The general Passau University Library Regulations also apply in the group study rooms.

Library Management