

Rules of Conduct for the Group Study Rooms of Passau University Library

1. The group study rooms can be used by groups of two to eight people.
2. The rooms can only be reserved by students enrolled at the University of Passau.
3. Reservations can be made via Stud.IP.
4. Reservations are accepted at the earliest 14 days in advance.
5. One reservation (max. 2 hours) can be made per day.
6. Reservations lapse if the group does not arrive within 30 minutes of the agreed time.
7. The rooms cannot be used for scheduled regular events.
8. Commercial use of the rooms is not permitted.
9. Reservations cannot be transferred or made on behalf of someone else.
10. Students check in for their room booking themselves via QR code.
11. Pens for the whiteboards and a remote control for the screen (Computer Science & Mathematics reading room) can be borrowed from the circulation desk against a deposit.
12. Please keep the room clean.
13. Please keep the noise level low.
14. You are using the group study room and other resources at your own risk. The University Library cannot be held liable for loss or damage to private items.
15. The general Passau University Library Regulations also apply in the group study rooms.